Dear Vendor:

Attached is the application for the 48th annual Catoclin Colorfest, which will be held October 8 & 9, 2011.

The fee for craftspeople is $225.00 for an individual space in the community park with 15 feet frontage and at least 10 feet deep. The fee for craftspeople is $225.00 for an individual space on the firemen's activity grounds with 12 feet frontage and at least 14 feet deep. Only one space per vendor may be rented in the park, two spaces may be rented per vendor on the activity grounds for a fee of $425. All spaces are outdoors and all participants must supply their own equipment. This prices includes your permit fee, as required by the Town of Thurmont.

All items offered for sale MUST BE HANDCRAFTED by the individual or organization renting the space. The individual or organization renting the space MUST be present as the Exhibitor. No commercially made items may be sold. Each applicant must submit at least 3 photos of their craft or of a food booth set up. No booth may contain more than two types of crafts. There are no exceptions to this ruling. If two people are sharing a booth, they still may have no more than two types of crafts. Please be sure to send photos of the items you wish to sell and that the items can be easily identified in the photos.

Non-profit food vendors space fee is $255.00 and individual food vendors fee is $730.00. This fee includes your town permit and electricity. NOTE: Food Vendors must get a temporary food permit from the Frederick County Health Department and this temporary permit must be taken to the Thurmont Town Office to obtain the local permit which is necessary to participate.

The deadline for submitting your application MAY 30, 2011. EVERY EXHIBITOR IS JURIED. Every space will be checked during the weekend to be sure that you are selling only the items which were approved on your application. Any violation of this rule will result in removal from the show.

There is no subletting of spaces.

There are no refunds of space fees after June 30th.
